KAISER RESUMES TWO KILLED IN HIS DAILY WALK

Surgeons' Bulletin To-Day Reports Slow Improvement in Vocal Cord from Which Polypus Was Removed.

ALARM FOR EMPEROR AFFECTS GERMAN BOURSE.

Prof. Orth, a Famous Cancer Specialist, Declares There Is Nothing Serious in Case of the Kaiser.

BERLIN, Nov. 10.-A bulletin on the tion of Emperor William, issued this morning at the New Palace, Pots am, says there is a slow improvement in the appearance of the left viscal day resumed his usual morning walk

Despite the reassuring reports ofheisily issued regarding the Emperor's condition to-day, the people of Germany continue to regard his illness with gloomy fore-bodings.
The examination of the tiny grains cound in the cells of the polypus taken from the Emperor's vocal cords has not freen completed and until it is and the result is known much uncasiness will be felt.
The Crown Prince still remains at wernigerode, where he is busy shooting iser and wild boar.
Prof. Johannes Orth, the famous canmer specialist, who is the recognized tocessor of Prof. Virchow, stoutly maintains that there is nothing serious in the Emperor's case. He says there is not the slightest suspicion of any danrerous formation existing.
The polypus removed from the Emperor's left vocal cord was about the lies of a lentil. The wound is healing sapidly, and the physicians in attendunce are much pleased with the Emperor's condition.

LAWYER ABE LEVY GETS WATCH BACK

Pickpocket Nabbed It a Month Otto Rosalsky as Security for Legal Fee. .

Abs Levy, the attorney, met a pick-ocket on the Brooklyn Bridge a month ago and after the meeting Mr. was minus a gold watch. Mr. Levy was leaving Judge Cowing's roo in the Criminal Courts Building today when he saw Otto Rosalsky, former assistant District-Attorney, look at a watch. Levy recognized it.
"Where did you get that watch, Otto?" asked Levy.
"Oh, a client gave it to me as security for a fee." "It's mine," cried Levy. "I lost it on the Bridge. It is No. 7,078,319. Look at M'CARTHY TRIAL PUT OFF.

Accused Walking Delegate Retain John F. Meintyre as Counsel. Walking Delegate Tim McCarthy, whose trial was to have come up to-day on a charge of extortion—a charge ande in the Sam Parks indictment-was remanded for trial on Nov. 18. Attorney John F. McIntyre, former Assistant Distriet-Attorney, announced that he had been retained as counsel and that he would require until Nov. 18 to look into would require until Nov. is to look into the case.

James Hickey, fifty-three years old, of No. 22.5 Second aivenue, a walking dele-gate for the Housesmiths and Bridge-men's Union, was arraigned in the Mor-risania Police Courtt o-day accused of Henry E. Fox, a contractor, of No. 217 West One Hundred and Twenty-third street, who is building a new bridge on the Pelham Parkway, was complainant. He said that on Sunday Hickey told him that if he did not give him $20 he would call off about a score of the mem-bers of the union who were working for Fox arranged, he says, with the man to meet him in his office yesterday. Detective Seeback, of the Bronx Park station, was there also. Both men said they saw the money gaid to Hickey, who was then arrested.

The walking delegate refused to make any statement, but asked for an adjournment, which was granted by Magistrate Baker until next Tuesday.

Miner Slays Physician, Wounds

Others and Is Shot to Death by Policeman. WALLACE, Ida., Nov. 10 .- Two perons were killed and two wounded in a shooting affray at the entrance of the Wallace Opera-House last night. The shooting took place just as the theatre-goers were leaving the theatre, followng a performance by the James O'Neil Dr. W. F. Fims, shot through the sead; William Cuff, miner, shot three

Chief of Police McGovern, shot through right hand; Opera-House Policeman Rose, shot in leg. The trouble arose over Cuff insiting on House Policeman Rose ordered him to desist, but he refused. The policeman took the cigar away from Cuff after a struggla. Cuff left the theatre vowing vengeance. He returned with a revolver and waited until the performance was day resumed his usual morning walk in the park.

The builted was signed by Drs. Von Lauthold, Morits Schmidt and Hoerg.

The Emperor walked out twice to-day and transacted business with the chief of the naval staff and the chiefs of his private military and naval cabinets.

The morning bulletin was not supplemented by other details. Importance is no longer attached to the Emperor's would by the court officials, who consider public concern can best be aliqued by not saying anything except what is contained in the builteins.

Despite the reassuring reports officially issued regarding the Emperor's condition to-day, the people of Germany continue to Fegara his illness with gloomy rorepodings.

CROKER COMING BACK.

He Tells a Friend at Wantage His Visit to This City Will Be Brief. Richard Croker is coming back to New York next February.

To an intimate friend who paid a visit to Wantage recently, Mr. Croker said that business interests would require his presence here at the time

"I am not going back to stay," said Mr. Croker. "This is my home and will be my home aperatter. As soon as my affairs are settled. I shall return to England. There is no politics in my errand, but, of course, I shall see and talk with many of my old friends. But as for New York politics I am done with it.

SOMERFIELD AGAIN ARRAIGNED Lawrence Somerfield, who was yesterday convicted of grand largeny in the first degree, was arraigned again to-day before Justice Davis in the Criminal Ago and Somebody Gave It to Branch of the Supreme Court to plead to a second indictment of a like offence to a second indictment of a like offence which was found against him yesterday. The indictment charges Somerfied with, grand larceny in the first degree, in having swindled one Charles P. Buchenan out of a large sum of money in Paris. On application of counsel an adjournment to the pleading was secured until Thursday, on the ground that a motion to inspect the minutes of the Grand Jury will be made.

They looked at the works and sure chough the number was the same.

Rosalsky turned it over to Levy and now Rosalsky is waiting for his client to show up.
